Arbiter Electrotech “Combined Business Policy” defines the terms and conditions that includes but is not limited to the manufacturing and/or lead time, sell and resell policies, minimum size of order, restrictions of sell and/or resell, scopes of service(s) or otherwise. It must be noted that Arbiter Electrotech reserves the right to change/modify/remove this “Combined Business Policy” along with any/entire term(s) and condition(s) and any/all involved documents at any time with/without any prior notice or consent of any other party. Furthermore, only “Combined Business Policy” to take effect is the latest released version unless otherwise is stated. It is the responsibility of user to follow the terms and conditions properly. By using any product(s)/service(s) of Arbiter Electrotech, the user approves that he/she has read and accepted the terms and conditions of the “Combined Business Policy”.

Terms and Condition of Combined Business Policy

1.1 Minimum Quantity

1.1A All Arbiter Electrotech products are intended to be sold in a specific lot. The size of the lot can vary between types of user(s)/client(s), the type of product, availability and/or demand of the specific product or else. Arbiter Electrotech reserves the right to define the size of the minimum quantity, solely at its own discretion.

1.2 Lead Time

1.2A All Arbiter Electrotech products have a specific manufacturing lead time. If any user/client don't buy the product from the reserve of Arbiter Electrotech or if the ordered product is not available in the reserve of Arbiter Electrotech, the user/client must wait out the lead time. The lead time is defined in days and is exclusively defined by Arbiter Electrotech.

1.2B Arbiter Electrotech will try its best to adhere to the published lead time, however, in case of unintentional and unforeseen circumstances, Arbiter Electrotech reserves the right to extend the lead time for any and all of its product(s)/service(s) without consulting the user(s)/client(s). In case of unintentional extension of the lead time, after any order has been placed by any user/client, the user(s)/client(s) will be notified, however, Arbiter Electrotech is not liable to pay any form of compensation, financial or otherwise, to any of its user(s)/client(s) in case of any extension of production lead time.

1.2C In case the user(s)/client(s) cancel(s) the order due to extended lead time, the user(s)/client(s) has to adhere to the “Product Ordering Policy” of Arbiter Electrotech. The version of “Product Ordering Policy” that the user(s)/client(s) has reviewed and agreed upon when the order was placed, will take effect unless otherwise is stated.

1.3 Resell

1.3A Reselling any and all Arbiter Electrotech products are prohibited unless Arbiter Electrotech provides the client, intending to resell, with a prior, formal and specific written consent. Reseller(s) of any and all Arbiter Electrotech product(s) must sell to any party who are direct user and must not sell to any party who are reseller themselves. Arbiter Electrotech reserves the right to define the terms and conditions of resell and to cancel the resell permission at its own discretion with/without any prior notice or consultation to any party. The permission of resell will be revoked in situations, including but not limited to, breach of any Terms and Conditions set by Arbiter Electrotech, breach of mutual trust, financial mishandling by the reseller, mishandling of Arbiter Electrotech product by the reseller, misbehaving with Arbiter Electrotech staffs without any valid cause, misbehaving with Arbiter Electrotech product user(s)/client(s) by the reseller without any valid cause, any criminal activities by the reseller, by order of court of law, by order of any relevant law enforcement agency or otherwise. Arbiter Electrotech is not liable to pay any form of compensation, financial or otherwise, to any party in case the resell permission is revoked.

1.4 Operating Region

1.4A Reselling of any and all Arbiter Electrotech products must be conducted within a specific border or region that is approved and/or defined by Arbiter Electrotech. Reseller must possess a prior formal and specific written consent from Arbiter Electrotech, regarding the operating region. Arbiter Electrotech is solely responsible to define the operating region for any/all of its product(s)/service(s) unless otherwise is stated.

1.5 Operating Scope

1.5A Education/training/Research and Developments institutions along with all individual user(s) are not allowed to sell or resell any Arbiter Electrotech product(s)/service(s), unless otherwise is stated.

1.6 Economic Sanctions

1.6A Arbiter Electrotech will not continue any business relationship/transactions or engage in any business relationship/transactions with any country/region/government or any individual user(s)/client(s) from any country/region that are within any kind of international economic sanction, imposed by United Nations (UN), International Criminal Court (ICC), International Monetary Funds (IMF), World Bank or any UN recognized region/country or otherwise, unless otherwise is stated.
